

ILLEGAL PEACEKEEPING MISSIONS ON CANADIAN SOIL AND HOW TO END THEM

How The Ipperwash Inquiry suppressed evidence and put Ontario communities on a collision course with anarchy

Everything you need to know about Ontario's illegal peacekeeping missions on Canadian soil plus our recommendations – based on 6 years of full time activism during the Caledonia crisis – on how to end them.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Mark Vandermaas is a former UN peacekeeper, founder of the Caledonia Victims Project, and was leader of the Ipperwash Papers project (IpperwashPapers.ca). He can be reached at 519.457.0709, info@caledoniavictimsproject.ca

Gary McHale is the founder of Canadian Advocates for Charter Equality. He can be reached at 289.286.0423, info@canace.ca

Mary Lou LaPratte was a long time Ipperwash resident/activist who lived through the nightmare of native violence and OPP/DND racial policing that ripped her community apart for years before and after the death of Dudley George. She spoke, along with Mark Vandermaas and Gary McHale, at their 'Ipperwash Papers' (IpperwashPapers.ca) news conference held in the Queen's Park Media Studio on March 14, 2007 where they released over 400 pages of shocking documents regarding the victimization of non-native residents that never found their way into the Ipperwash Inquiry record.
